Occupying a desirable corner plot on a quiet no-through road, this attractive 1930s three-bedroom semi-detached home offers well-balanced accommodation, a larger-than-expected rear garden, and excellent potential for future extension (subject to planning permission).

Ideally positioned within walking distance of Stourbridge town centre and transport links, the property combines everyday convenience with a peaceful residential setting.

The property opens via an enclosed entrance porch with an attractive arched brick surround, leading into a welcoming hallway with useful under-stairs storage.

To the front, a bay-fronted lounge enjoys excellent natural light and retains a number of character features, including stained glass detailing, a decorative fire surround and picture rail.

To the rear, the kitchen/diner provides a practical and sociable space, fitted with a range of units and integrated appliances, with patio doors opening directly onto the garden, creating a natural connection between indoor and outdoor living. Upstairs, the property offers three bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with bay window and fitted wardrobes, and a second bedroom also benefiting from built-in storage.

A key feature of the property is its generous, tiered rear garden, which extends beyond typical expectations for homes of this style.
